Dr. Badrul Huda Khan
7611 McWeadon Lane
Springfield, VA 22150

Dear Dr. Khan:

It is with great pleasure that I announce that you have been chosen by the United States Distance Learning Association (USDLA) Board of Directors as one of the recipients of the 2015 USDLA Hall of Fame Award.

The USDLA Hall of Fame Award is presented to an individual who has contributed significantly to the field of distance learning through leadership, technology, research and teaching. USDLA Board Member, Reggie Smith, nominated you for this prestigious Award. In your years of professional experience, your accomplishments have contributed immeasurably in laying the successful foundation for distance learning and its application within the educational community. Your participation and commitment in the field of distance learning makes you a deserving and worthy recipient of this Award.

The Hall of Fame Award will be presented during USDLA's National Conference on Monday, April 27, 2015 in St. Louis, MO at 6:00PM. I hope that you will be able to attend the event to accept your Award. Please contact Kimberly Airasian of the USDLA office at 1.800.275.5162 or kairasian@usdla.org to confirm your attendance at the USDLA Awards Ceremony.

Congratulations again and best wishes for continued success.

Regards,

John G. Flores, Ph.D.
Chief Executive Officer
